

Educational Support for Parents.

For settled families.

With well over 13 pathways into university from public school alone, trying to identify the right option for your child can seem daunting. As well as offering a bespoke, upon request service, we have created some services that we know, from our experience, will provide the support you need.

Package

What's included

Discovery-

For those who are at the discovery stage of the School system ideal for families living here with a child just about to start school or change to local school

CHF 180-220

50 min. online

information or Q&A session with a local Swiss school expert

Subject matter Bespoke

For families with specific needs, we offer a 1-1 advice and guidance service. We cover a range of topics such as addressing teachers concerns, communicating with the school and other ins school challenges.

CHF 220

60 min. initial

conversation with a local Swiss school expert.

School transitions and pathways

From Gymnasium to Berufsmatura to A-levels: Whether you have children at local school or a private bilingual or international school, making sense of the various pathways and options in higher education is not an easy task. We support parents who need help with identifying the myriad of private and public-school options beyond primary school and help you to find the right pathway for your child.

CHF 180-220

50 min. online information or Q&A session with a local Swiss school expert

Written summary with recommendations and an overview of available private and public pathways and options.